

This question has been asked more than once before and I have given all the available information about it to the member. Sir, I raise a point of order whether the member can ask a question not for information but merely for President: When a question is repeated here they seem to go on repeating the same answer, thus permitting a round of critical interpellators like Mr. John Kattakayam to go on with their questions.

Mr. M. N. Paramesvaran Pillai: May I know whether the school is located very near the site selected by Government for a public market?

Mr. C. V. Chandrasekharan: Yes, Sir.

Mr. M. N. Paramesvaran Pillai: May I know, Sir, whether this school was opened with a view to prevent the opening of the market?

Mr. C. V. Chandrasekharan: I have no such information.

Mr. M. N. Paramesvaran Pillai: May I know whether the site for the market was selected before the opening of the school or after the opening of the school?

Mr. C. V. Chandrasekharan: When the department sanctioned the school they had no information about the market site. That answer was given on another occasion also.

Muttam V. P. School.

48. Mr. J. John Kattakayam: Will the Government be pleased to state the reply given by the officers of the department to the applications made in 1106 and 1107 for permission to conduct a V. P. School in the local Muttam Co-operative Society building?

Mr. C. V. Chandrasekharan: Permission was not granted.

Mr. J. John Kattakayam: അവിടെയുള്ള മാർക്കറ്റിനേക്കാൾ ഇല്ലാതാക്കാനല്ല ഇങ്ങനെ ഒരു സ്കൂൾ അവിടെ ആവശ്യപ്പെട്ടിട്ടുള്ളതു?

Mr. C. V. Chandrasekharan: I rise to a point of order. That question contains an insinuation.

President: I see that.

Mr. E. P. Varghese: May I know whether the market there is a public market or a private market?

Mr. C. V. Chandrasekharan: The market has not yet been opened, I think.
